- Sasha was an employee. She worked off and on. If I had a doctor's appointment she would work.
- She was part-time. She only worked 2-3 times a month.
- Mother of Child A called me on Friday asking where her baby was.
- She said she was sitting outside and no one answered the door.

- Then I thought maybe Sasha and Child A went to the store.
- I tried to call Child A's mother back. She told me there is Sasha and she does not have my baby.
- I left here about 3:00 or 3:15.
- Mother of Child A called about 3:40. She called me last at 3:47.
- Sasha left the door open. Mother of Child A was putting the child's coat on and the school age children were getting on the bus.
- The store is about 11/2-2 blocks from here.

On February 23, 2011, Donna Sheffer and Jada Spears SCCR Facility Specialist interviewed Child A's mother. Mother of Child A gave the following statement:

- I knocked on the door and there was no answer.
- I don't know why, but I turned the door knob and it opened.
- Sasha was down stairs smoking a cigarette.
- My baby was not alone.
- I am not taking him back. The hours did not work for me.

On February 25, 2011, Donna Sheffer and Jada Spears SCCR Facility Specialist interviewed Sasha Jones. Ms. Jones provided the following statement:

- Child A was sleeping in the crib.
- I was in a hurry to get the cleaning done and I left the door open when I took the trash out.
- I went down stairs to do some cleaning and laundry.
- I heard footsteps upstairs and it was Child A's mother.
- She was upset because Child A was upstairs by himself and the door was unlocked.
- I tried to comfort her.
